

City of Waltham Massachusetts Resolution

Whereas . . .

Greater Waltham Arc (GWARC) has recently received a certification with distinction from the State Department of Mental Retardation for care and quality of services, and Greater Waltham Arc a nonprofit organization, which works to help people with disabilities, was certified with distinction for the seventh time in a row on January 14, 2009, and

Whereas . . .

This year only 38 percent of the agencies under State Department of Mental Retardation were certified with distinction, and

Whereas . . .

Whereas . . .

Only nine agencies across the state have accomplished "such a track record" as Greater Waltham Arc, now therefore

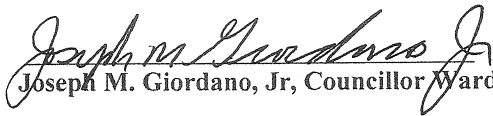

Be It Resolved. . .

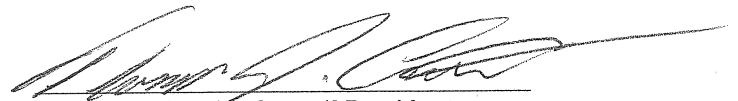

That the Waltham City Council and the City of Waltham express its gratitude to the Greater Waltham Arc for the years of service and dedication to program, now therefore

Be It Further Resolved. . .

That Waltham City Council appreciates the sense of purpose and independence that Great Waltham Arc has given to so many of its members. Congratulations to Dr. Roslynn Rubin, her Staff and the Board of Directors on a job well done and hopefully one that will continue for many years.
